Dandenong Fire Equipment Maintenance
W - www.dfemfire.com.au
E - info@dfemfire.com.au
M - 0408 351 617

General Evacuation, Extinguisher and Emergency System Training

Target Audience:

Appropriate for all workplaces as a general or introduction to – evacuation drills, extinguisher and emergency systems training.

Course Overviews:

1 – Evacuation Exercises – Approximate time up to 1 hour

- Walk-through your companies plan to identify and learn the procedure for evacuating the building safely
- conduct evacuation exercise with critique and debriefing.

2 – Fire Extinguisher Training – Approximate time up to 1½ hours

- Consists of up to an hour presentation including :
    - extinguisher identification
    - the fire triangle (and tetrahedron)
    - main types of fire extinguishers, their use and potential hazards
    - how to use portable fire fighting equipment
- Practical demonstration of fire extinguishers (usually water and carbon dioxide) and operation by attendees. Note, no fires are able to be lit on sites for safety reasons.

3 – Emergency Systems Training – Approximate time up to 1 hour

- Consists of an hour presentation and discussion with a site walk through if required.
- Includes framework to establish and maintain your sites emergency (evacuation) system.
- Emergency Planning Committee and Emergency Control Organisation requirements.
- Warden identification and structure.
- Warden duties and responsibilities.

Do you need a new plan or want to have your current plan reviewed?
We can help.

We can produce emergency plans and compliant Evacuation Diagrams.
Click on this box

Certification:

These are non-accredited courses (accredited course are usually required for high risk or dangerous goods sites). A training record is issued for each attendee.

Limitations:

- Generally, groups of up to twenty are preferred.
- All training is conducted at your site.
- A training room or reasonable space is required for visual presentation.

Session Cost:

- Session 1 - $175.00 plus GST
- Session 2 - $450.00 plus GST
  plus recharge of our extinguishers discharged for demonstration
- Session 3 - $400.00 plus GST

Contact Details:

Email : info@dfemfire.com.au
Mobile : 0408 351 617